TECHNICAL TALENT EXPO

TECHNICAL TALENT IS IN DEMAND IN PHILLY

Philadelphia has some some pretty amazing companies that are in need of talented technical experts to join their team, but sometimes it can be hard to stand out in a pile of resumes. To meet that need, Philly Startup Leaders is turning the job fair upside down and offering companies a chance to meet engineers, developers and designers with specific skills in an intimate networking event offered exclusively during Philly Tech Week.

Are you a technical expert between jobs or seeking a new opportunity? If so, then come to Philly Startup Leaders' Tech Week Event where you could find the opportunity of your dreams.

40 EMPLOYERS ARE ATTENDING! But less than 40 tickets are left for Technical Talent. So if you're ready to get the attention you deserve from adoring employers...
